

HIDDEN HILLS RANCH

PRESCHOOL CLASSES FALL 2010

Little Farmer's Classes - Join us for a special hands-on opportunity to experience farm life with your preschooler. Younger children (ages 2-3) team up with a parent/adult to meet our farm animals up close and personal and have fun together in this active learning class. Older children (ages 4-5) have an opportunity to attend class on their own. Each session focuses on a particular animal group at the farm. Curriculum is integrated with arts and crafts, stories, songs, games, and a snack. Both children and adults should dress in play clothes with sturdy shoes/boots. Younger siblings may accompany a parent - please no older siblings unless they are enrolled in the class.

Little Buddies Classes – These preschool classes will give your 3-5 year old the opportunity to experience a variety of fun activities at the ranch! Students will spend time in the kitchen making simple healthy snacks, learning about safety and nutrition and incorporate crops from our garden to see where food comes from. They will learn about the parts of a plant and how they grow, spend hands-on time in the garden harvesting berries or flowers, and make a fun project to take home. They will develop the science processing skills of observation, classification, and communication in a fun and engaging environment. They will also make music together and learn about sound and rhythm through listening, singing and games and explore different art mediums to make works of art geared for their abilities!

Pony Club – Spend a fun hour with our ponies and miniature horse! Pony Club is designed for students' ages 4-7 who want to learn about and spend time with horses! Each Pony Club meeting will include hands-on time with the horses - grooming and caring for them, leading them, learning horse safety, and riding either on horseback or in our Amish cart. Other fun activities may include: stories, songs, and crafts geared to the student's age. Class size is limited to 4 students. Pony Club is an ongoing class offered on Thursdays or Fridays. Your student may attend as many classes as desired and progress at their own pace through several levels of material.
